Arlington Community FCU, we're a nonprofit, member-owned cooperative where you are the shareholder! We reinvest our profits in our cooperative to ensure we consistently offer lower fees and better rates. When you join and open an account, you don't just become a member, you become a part owner for life!

Becoming a member is easier than you think!

All you need is $5 and proof of eligibility.

Just about anyone can bank at Arlington Community FCU. You're eligible to join if:

- You live, work, worship, volunteer, go to school or do consistent business in Arlington, Fairfax County, City of Alexandria, and City of Falls Church, VA.
- You're an immediate family member of a current member: spouse, parent, grandparent, stepparent, child, grandchild, stepchild sibling/step sibling
- You live with someone who is eligible including a domestic partner, legal guardian, foster child, roommate with shared finances
- You have an immediate family member who is eligible to join under #1 above, even if they haven't joined yet

We serve our business members, too!

All you need is $5 and proof of eligibility.

In order to become a member, the business must be located in our field of membership: Arlington County, City of Alexandria, City of Falls Church, or Fairfax County.

Two alternative ways your business can qualify:

1. Be a sole proprietorship with the person qualifying for individual membership.
2. Have all owners qualify for individual membership IF the business is not located in the field of membership.

If at least one of the above applies to you and you're ready for a financial partner who's with you—and with the Arlington community—open your account and become a member now.

"I absolutely love the convenience of ACFCU's mobile app and mobile wallet, and with Bill Pay, adulting is done in a snap."

ALEX HELD

"My journey with ACFCU started when I applied for a car loan. I was impressed with the prompt, kind, and professional service I received. I instantly asked if there was an open position and since then I have had the pleasure to work for ACFCU. The best part is that we live our core values with our members, our community, and our institution."

ANILLY FLOREZ

Member Service Representative | Employee since July 2019

"ACFCU definitely cares about its members. I was very pleased with how responsive the credit union was when it came to coronavirus. They were able to make changes to help members get the services that they needed."

CC JENKINS

"I have always preferred credit unions because of the personal approach to each member. I value ACFCU's financial education programs, in our classrooms and in the community."
